About us

I 1 watched a great science-fiction film last week. It was about two people who 2 _____ to live in the ocean. They could breathe under water because they had special masks and flippers. They 3 _____ very quickly! They could even walk slowly on the waves. They met some sharks and they 4 _____ talking to each other in a different language. I didn't like that part very much. It was quite strange and not believable. I 5 _____ it to the end though and I'm glad I did because the end was amazing. The two main actors started to look like fish! They built their own underwater castle and 6 _____ happily ever after.

- 1 Which film did Janet watch?
W: You look tired, Janet. What's wrong?
G: Oh I'm fine, Mum. There's nothing wrong. I just watched a really long film. It was really boring!
W: Oh no! Was it an action film? I know you don't like those.
G: No, it wasn't. It was a science-fiction film. I usually like science-fiction films but this one lasted three hours!
W: Wow, that was long. That's nearly as long as the musical I watched last week.
- 2 Which film did the girl and boy both like?
B: I really enjoyed the film we watched last night.
G: The animated one? Did you really? I thought it was boring and I didn't laugh at all.
B: Well, what film did you like? What about the horror film we watched last weekend? You said it was good.
G: Yes, I did. But I can't say the same for you! You screamed three times.
B: That's true. The comedy we watched at the cinema was great, though. I loved it!
G: Me, too!
- 3 Which film did the woman not enjoy?
W: I generally like action films because there's so much going on and everything is so fast. I didn't like the last one I watched, though. The script was really boring ... I fell asleep during the second part. I watched a really good musical last weekend. I loved singing along to the songs. The science-fiction film I watched at the cinema wasn't bad either.
- 4 What did the girl's dad do at the end of the film?
G: Did you enjoy going to the cinema last night, Dad?
M: Yes, I did. The film I watched was great! It was about a famous actor who was at the end of his career in the theatre. In the film, it was the actor's last performance. Everyone clapped at the end of the play.
G: Sounds interesting! It's much better than horror films. I didn't like the one I saw last week. All that the actors do in the film is scream and shout!
M: Yes, you're right! Well, I actually cried at the end of this one. So there was no screaming!
- 5 What happened in the film?
B: I watched a really strange film last week. It was about some people from another world that danced all the time. There was no music at all, so that made it even more strange. It wasn't scary, though, and the set was interesting.

- 6 Which film did the boy and girl watch first?
B: Wow! I'm really tired. We watched so many films last night!
G: Me, too. I think the comedy was the best. It was a good idea to watch it last because the other two films were boring.
B: Well, I thought the musical was great! But perhaps it was good because we started with such a boring film.
G: Oh the animated film. I actually thought it was quite fun!

2  U5:2 Listen and match the information to the films.

M: Good evening, everyone and welcome to tonight's programme What's on at the cinema! ... We've got a new horror film called Angels Laugh, and the people who watched it last night loved it. They all clapped at the end. Now, for our little cinema-lovers we've got a great musical that features hippos and lions. They dance and sing, and make everyone smile. Another film that shows wild animals is the latest animated film. A group of dolphins take on a mission to save all the sea animals in the world. It has some sad moments, like when a dolphin cries when it can't swim in the ocean. But overall, it will make you feel good by the end. For those of you that enjoy a good scream, don't miss Adam Martin's new horror film. It starts quite late, at ten o'clock in the evening, but the costumes are amazing. If you prefer to laugh, then I'm sure Beautiful Castle is the best option. I watched it last night and everyone in the audience was laughing throughout. And don't miss Travel Now, a science-fiction film from director Johnny Woods that sees actors travelling to the past through chimneys. Now, ...

Teaching notes

Award one point per item for accuracy and one point for ability to communicate well.

Activity 7 asks pupils to produce the vocabulary items from this unit forming questions and short answers with the past simple of regular verbs.

Ask pupils to look at the pictures and name the different film lexis. They should point to the pictures and call out the film genres, e.g. musical, science-fiction film, comedy, etc. Point at the example dialogue to illustrate what structure the pupils need to use. Then have pupils ask and answer in pairs, focusing on the correct form of the past simple.

Have them extend the dialogue by asking follow-up questions they can think of. They should ask and answer five questions each and give a mix of negative and affirmative answers.

Activity 8 asks pupils to use the jobs vocabulary and verbs from this unit, and to produce affirmative and negative statements in the past simple with adverbs of manner. The focus is on both regular and irregular adverbs.

Ask pupils to look at the pictures and name the people, actors, director, audience, etc. Then have them think of possible verbs and adverbs they can use. Have them form statements to describe the people in the pictures, using these adverbs in the past simple. Make sure they are using the correct form of the past simple and point out that they need to use a different adverb for each of their statements.

7 Look at the pictures. Ask and answer what the people thought of the films.

Example answer: Did we enjoy the horror film? No, we didn't.

8 What did these people do to make the film? Look and say. Use the past simple and adverbs of manner.

Example answer: The camera operator moved fast. The director clapped loudly.
