

Syllabus

	Vocabulary	Grammar	Literacy and Culture	Communication	Pronunciation	Real world and Share Project	Story
Welcome	Numbers 11-20 Days of the week The weather	Hello. My name's ... How are you? What's the weather like? It's (cold). What day is it today? It's (Monday).
1 At home	attic, balcony, bathroom, living room, hall, kitchen, garden, garage bed, sofa, bath, fridge, wardrobe	Where's (grandpa)? He's in (the living room) Where's your (rucksack)? It's on / next to / under (the table).	Literacy: A to-do list Culture: In my room	 Functional language: Can you help me, please? Yes, of course! Learning situation: What makes a safe house?	/əʊ/ robot, sofa, throw	Social science: Houses in nature Project: A tiny house	Where are you? Value: Do you think about others?
2 I can do it!	do a puzzle, draw a picture, fly, play volleyball, run a race, skateboard, swim, write climb a tree, play the guitar, ride a bike, ride a scooter, skip	He can (draw) but he can't (fly). Can she (play the guitar)? Yes, she can. / No, she can't.	Literacy: A blog Culture: My sports and activities	 Functional language: Can I have a go? Sure! Now it's your turn! Learning situation: Why is it good to do sports?	/aɪ/ bike, climb, ride	PE: Keeping fit Project: A sports routine	You can do it! Value: How do you help your friends?
Share the world 1	A fable: The Ant and the Bird
3 The wildlife park	crocodile, elephant, giraffe, hippo, lion, monkey, tiger, zebra bookshop, playground, school, swimming pool, wildlife park	There's / There isn't (a monkey). There are / There aren't any (hippos). Where's the (playground)? It's in front of / behind the (zoo). Where's the (bookshop)? It's behind the (zoo).	Literacy: A brochure Culture: A wildlife park	 Functional language: Where are the monkeys? They're over there. Learning situation: Why is it important to look after animals?	/w/ walk, wildlife, windy	Natural science: Baby animals Project: A baby animal nest	At the wildlife park Value: Do you follow the rules?
4 At the fair	arm, body, feet, fingers, hand, head, leg, toes ears, eyes, hair, mouth, nose, teeth	She's got (big hands). He hasn't got (big hands). Has it got (big eyes)? Yes, it has./ No, it hasn't	Literacy: A poster Culture: A school fair	 Functional language: How many computers are there? There are six computers. Learning situation: Why is it good to have computers in schools?	/θ/ bath, mouth, teeth	Natural science: The five senses Project: A senses wheel	Be careful! Value: Are you careful when you play?
Share the world 2	A play: Picnic in the jungle
5 My day	brush my teeth, get up, go home, go to bed, go to school, have breakfast, have dinner, have lunch chips, egg, milkshake, pancakes, sandwich, soup	I have (breakfast). I (don't have) lunch. I want (pancakes). I don't want (juice).	Literacy: A journal Culture: My daily activities	 Functional language: What sport can we do? Let's play basketball! Learning situation: Why is it good to be healthy and happy?	/tʃ/ cheese, chicken soup, chips	Natural science: Fruit and vegetables Project: Life cycle poster	Ready for school! Value: Are you always ready for school?
6 All about me	listening to music, playing board games, playing football, playing tennis, playing video games, reading a comic, taking a photo, watching TV cap, hoodie, pyjamas, sandals, shorts, tracksuit	What are you doing? I'm playing (tennis). What's she wearing? She's / isn't wearing wearing a (dress).	Literacy: A poem Culture: My special place	 Functional language: Can I help you? I'd like a book about animals, please. Learning situation: Why are libraries important?	/h/ hat, hippo, hoodie	Music: Musical instruments Project: A musical instrument	Good idea Value: How do you play together?
Share the world 3	A poem: Snack time
Christmas	baubles, bells, Father Christmas, mince pies, sleigh	What's this? It's a (mince pie).				Project: A Christmas bauble
Pancake Day	eggs, flour, lemon, pancake, sugar	Where are the eggs? They're (in the fridge).				Project: A pancake menu
Easter	egg hunt, flowers, grass, lamb, rabbit	What' are you doing? I'm (looking for Easter eggs).				Project: An Easter egg hunt	