READING

7 Read the texts. Then match the sentences with the correct school.

A Imagine a school with no tests or homework – a school where you choose your subjects and what you do every day. Sound like a dream? Not if you live in New York, USA. The Brooklyn Free School is for students of different ages – there are 4-year-old children and 18-year-old teenagers. They all learn to work together and follow their hobbies and interests.

B Forest Kindergarten is a pre-school for children aged 3 to 6 in Düsseldorf, Germany. In this school, the children spend time in the forest or the park. They don't play with plastic toys. Instead, they look for interesting objects in nature. The children only go inside a building when it's very cold or rainy.

C Think Global High School is an American school where you visit ten different countries in three years. The students start this school when they're 15 and they learn about the history, geography and culture of the places they visit. They study in traditional classrooms, museums, national parks and more.

- 1 This school isn't in the USA. ___
- 2 The students can study what they want. ___
- 3 You can't go to this school when you are five. ___
