READING

7 Read the text. The match sentences a–e to gaps 1–4. There is one extra sentence.

Collecting milk bottles

Collecting things is one of the most popular hobbies around the world. Probably everyone knows someone who has hundreds of music albums, toy cars, or comic books. <sup>1</sup>___ A good example of that is milk bottles.

People started using milk bottles in the late 1800s. <sup>2</sup>___ Thanks to milk bottles, people could keep milk fresh and clean. Over time, these bottles changed in design and shape.

Why do people collect milk bottles? <sup>3</sup>___ They come from different places, with unique designs, logos, and even colours. Some bottles have beautiful writing, while others have funny pictures.

This hobby is also a great way to make friends. There are clubs and online groups where people share their collections. <sup>4</sup>___ You can put some bottles on an empty shelf, keep flowers in them, or just use them as water bottles.

- a Plus, it's a great way to decorate your flat.
- b Before that, they brought their own cans or jars to buy milk.
- c They aren't very popular today.
- d But there are also a lot of people who fill their houses with more unusual things.
- e It's because each bottle tells a story.
