Alnwick Castle

Alnwick Castle is not only a British family home and a historic monument, but a fantastic tourist attraction in Northumberland, in the UK. It's famous as the setting for the magical Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry during the first two Harry Potter films. Harry Potter and his friends learn to fly broomsticks and to play Quidditch in the Outer Bailey. 'I always visit Alnwick Castle every summer. I love taking part in the Broomstick Training in the Outer Bailey. You feel like a real Harry Potter character. It's incredible and a lot of fun!', says Karl Spencer from Scotland.

You can go by train or by bus, and cyclists are always welcome. The castle has got beautiful gardens and walking routes too. It's also got nice cafés to have a delicious snack at the end of your visit.
